The exact ethnic or national origin of Christopher Columbus (1451-1506) has been a source of speculation since the 19th century. The general consensus among historians is that Columbus' family was from the coastal region of Liguria, that he spent his boyhood and early youth in the Republic of Genoa, in Genoa, in Vico Diritto, and that he subsequently lived in Savona, where his father Domenico ...

Approaches. One can sub-divide approaches to the origin of language according to some underlying assumptions: "Continuity theories" built on the idea that language exhibits so much complexity that one cannot imagine it simply appearing from nothing in its final form; therefore it must have evolved from earlier pre-linguistic systems among our primate ancestors.

We synthesize our proposal for strategic leadership in today's dynamic environments under the label of transcendent leadership. A transcendent leader is a strategic leader who leads within and amongst the levels of self, others, and organization (see Fig. 1). Leadership of self is an emerging area in the leadership literature, while leadership of others has been the dominant focus of leadership ...
